Nobody can know before the birth of a child, either it would be male child or female child. At present with the improvement of medical science, sometimes it can be know but always does not inform the correct massage. After the birth of a child everybody can realize its gender. After the birth of a female child every fancy person began to tease it. Perhaps it is the sin to be born as a female child. She has to bear all the teasing and negligence. By this way, one day it becomes as a women. After marriage she has to fall victim to physical and mental torturing. But she does not do to oppose against it. After taking various training about gender training, family low and develop leadership training. She thinks herself as a dutiful citizen in the society. So she has learnt how to oppose against the torture and illegal activities. Her Aloca Roy is one of the women.

She began to oppose from her life and family. Her husband name is Dharonikantho Roy. He is unemployed. Her family is consisted of six members. Expenditure of her family is much more than her income. Want or insufficiency is common thing in her family. So unhappiness is usually seen her family. As her husband is unemployed, she had to listens unbearable ill speech. She can't think what to do. Her husband used to beat her when she said so. Then she can't but shed terms and consoled herself. One day Aloka Rani Roy told to a USS field facilitator about her miserable condition. Then the USS field facilitator welcomed her and gets joined as a member of the USS ganogabeshona group. She sits in the ganogabeshona group and says her miserable condition in the group. One day her father-in-law made them separate without giving any food. They (both husband and wife) starved all the day and night. Next day her husband began to seek work. On the other hand Aloka Rani Roy borrowed some rice from the neighboring house and inspired him to make him active. Her husband also began to work for the sake of want. But Aloka Rani Roy did not stop running. She received training on sewing and began to make cloths for earring. Aloka Rani did not limit herself income only. She also participated in the meeting, seminar and training. She received gender training, family low training, leadership development training. By this way she began to be known with others. Aloka Rani was elected secretary of RDRS federation. Other women are also inspired for her bald position. After few days she was selected as a member of UP standing committee(PolliUnnayonAbokathamo). Now a day it any problem is created in the locality everybody calls Aloka Rani. For example in the village of Vabonkuri, Fatema Begum falls victim of female torture. In this case Aloka Rani was selected as Salish judge of the dismissal meeting.

Finding the social development, sharing the courage against illegality her husband inspires her and is inspired himself. Now both of them consult with each other. Both of them are agreed to admit their child into a school.

Aloka Rani thanks to USS and Diakonia for her change. She further said that without getting their help she could not come to this position.

Result – 5: Strengthening staffs capability

USS has implement particular programs in its working area like Quarterly staff meeting, meeting of USS executive committee, yearly project operational plan for staff, meeting of USS General committee and staff development training to established those activities: As a result:

As a result of the saying activity:

- ✚ All staffs can identified own and project activity, organizational strong and weak side and also take necessary steps as needed.
- ✚ Staffs can formulate future working plan and can execute working methodology as per planning.

Problem:.

1. Plan wise some activities of project have been hampered for UP election publicity.
2. Some project activities have been hampered for staff dropout.
3. Most of men go to out of our project area at various seasons for earning. So women group members look after family others work (cultivation, plantation, domestic Animal rearing as a result some time women group members' attendance has truncated.
4. Sometimes group meeting has been hampered for cold wave.

Challenges:

- It is hard to get proper services properly from union Parishad like Latrine distribute information, safety net programs and others servicesetc.
- Male members of the family are not eager to let female members participate in meetings, trainings, workshops and seminars.
- The males are thinking income of female is his personal income.

Lesson learned:

- Adolescent & Ganogabeshona forum are playing active role in combating women violence which is developing a sense of humanity.
- Debate and essay writing competitions are helping students to increase their knowledge and making them attracted to education.
- Child marriage and domestic violence are decreasing significantly through joint initiatives of women and adolescent forums support with local administration and govt. women affairs office at upazila and district level.
- Women leadership is developing mobility increasing through day observation.
- Empowerment of women is playing very effective role on decision making in house and society through involvement with income generating activities.
- Through Drama and Song, messages of program get rapid publicity and people awareness is increased.
- Giving necessary cooperation at field level from USS management committee is very essential for good project performance.

Opportunity:

- There is a scope for women to increase their involvement in Income Generating Activities.
- Husbands / fathers / brothers of female right-holders can be made aware of the project activities. This might develop their positive attitude towards women activities.
- Males do not like females to go out in meetings or forums. So to increase their positive attitude towards the project, the male members can also be included to the groups.
- Project right-holders can be made knowledgeable of the National Laws.
